

A senior assignment rarely fails on capability.

It fails on everything no one can see.

Confidential psychological infrastructure for relocating executives — and the partners who moved with them. Built by a licensed clinician. Run by your team.

◆ THE GAP AT THE TOP

The move is managed. The leader is not.

A senior move has no honeymoon and no peer group — and the executive is the person least likely to ask for help. A failed assignment is expensive, visible, and slow to recover from.

◆ WHAT'S INSIDE

01

Company & Sponsor Infrastructure

What HR and the board sponsor run — readiness assessment, sponsor briefing, derailment & referral, confidential check-ins, integration tracking.

02

Executive Psychoeducation

The leader's confidential self-guided modules — the first 90 days, performing while disoriented, identity & authority, sustaining performance.
